LLOYD'S valuable Maps, used by the War Dedartmen. Six months ago a young man called and sold me his good watch for $125 worth of maps, with which he commenced husiness; and since then he has cleared two thousand dellars. His name I will give to any one, with reference. Yesterday his same agent came into my office and purchased 2,000°; hes of my great Topographical Map of Virginia—retailing at 26c,— and starried right back to the army of Gen. Pope, in the valley of Virginia, where he obtains 50 cents a copy rapidy.
How few are there who would starrife his watch to obtain a start! Any industrious man can sell hundreds daily. Eyery man in McCiellan's army wants a copy of this rang. It is indispensible to troops in a strange country. Gen. McCiellan's and serma decompose and control of the Army of the Potomac selling this map, and $1 per copy can be obtained. Send $1 for sample of sil my maps
